OBJECTIVE

I'm a native Arabic speaker and a translation expert. I'm able to translate any document from English to Arabic and vice versa. In illustration, I can translate texts of legal, medical and technical content according to the academic and scientific rules. In short, my translation is fast, accurate and flawless. To be honest, translation is not only my job which I'm making living from, but also my favorite hobby and my greatest pleasure.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2012 — Present
Freelance Translator

- I have been working as a freelance translator for three years now.
- During that period, I have accumulated great experience in different fields of translation.
- My jobs included the translation of different topics in different areas of specialty like medicine, law and technology.
- My clients have always expressed their satisfaction for my work. I respect my job, then my clients respect me. This is my rule.
- looking back at that period when I first started my work as a translator, I feel that I have learned a lot of things. Nevertheless, I still want to learn more and more since nothing can water my thirst for knowledge.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Qualified translator from English to Arabic and vice versa.
- Qualified English teacher for all levels.
- Qualified video editor
- I'm also experienced in subtitling and synchronization.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts - English literature 2011 — 2015
Islamic University of Gaza

- I signed into Faculty of Arts and started studying English literature in 2011.
- After four years, I have managed to graduate and get my Bachelor Degree of Arts in 2015.
- During that four years, I have studied a lot of different courses about literature, culture and arts.
- Also, I have learned the essential skills like grammar, reading, writing and communication.
- However, translation courses have been always the most interesting thing during my study.
